AUTHOR BIOGRAPHIES

Timothy Ferguson is a librarian who lives in Gold Coast, Australia. He'd like to dedicate this book to his wife and children. He would also like to thank the other authors for stepping in and finishing the book during a period of personal crisis. Finally, he'd like to recommend Egyptology: The Missing Millennium by Okasha El Daly, which was of great assistance in his sections.

Ben McFarland lives in the wilds of Upstate New York, where he continues to venture into mysterious regiones in search of adventure with the priceless support of his wonderful wife, Mandy, his family, and the excellent advice of his steadfast friend, James.

Mark Shirley is a computational biologist living in the northeast of England. This book was a massive eye-opener for him: he was familiar with medieval Europe, but had little idea about the cultural richness of the kingdoms of the Nile Valley in the same period. He'd like to thank the usual suspects: family, ferrets, and friends (these are not mutually exclusive).

Ars Magica players participate in a thriving fan community by subscribing to email discussion lists (like the Berkeley list), compiling archives of game material (such as Project Redcap), maintaining fan-created web sites, and running demos through Atlas Games' Special Ops program.
